Subramania Bharati

- C. Subramaniya Bharathiyar was a poet, freedom fighter and social reformer from Tamil Nadu.
- Subramaniya Bharathiyar was born on 11th December 1882, in a village called Ettayapuram in Tirunelveli District in Tamil Nadu.
- At the age of seven, he started writing poems in Tamil.
- Significantly, a new age in Tamil literature began with Subramaniya Bharathi.
- Most part of his compositions are classifiable as short lyrical outpourings on patriotic, devotional and mystic themes.
- Many years of Bharathi's life were spent in the field of Journalism.
- Bharathi was also against caste system. Bharathi died on 11th September, 1921.
- His vision about a glorious India has been taking a shape in the post-Independence era. That is why he is respectfully called as Bharathidasar.
