i	The poets had their time to spare at Gemini studio with coffee and that was a recreational time for the employees, a common place for the discussion on Gandhian philosophy and communism.	2
ii	The metaphor of the Rattrap signifies that the world is a trap for people who are attracted by the luxuries and materialistic goods. People those who are in pursuit of worldly pleasures, are often led to unfortunate situations. The peddler leads an impoverished lifestyle, feels hopeless and frustrated, develops pessimistic attitude towards the world and falls into the bait of 30 kronors, and finds himself in a dangerous trap.	2
iii	Gandhiji's politics are intertwined with the day to day problems of the poor people, it was his humanitarian spirit which led him think and plan for the mass suffering from injustice, alleviate the distress of the poor. Today's politics is filled with hypocrisy and self-centred goals.	2

i.	Empathy towards a person as in the case of Derry or Mr. Lamb builds their self-esteem and confidence empowering the person to face all the odds.	2
ii	It is not right to be biased by the prediction of any kind. The astrologers' prediction about his future provoked him to develop a killing spree of tigers. So, in order to evade his death, he went on killing tigers and felt infallible. He felt he had escaped death and did not pay attention to the wound caused by the toy tiger which led to his death.	2
iii	Humanitarian considerations override man-made barriers of nationality and culture. Dr Sadao's professional ethics drive and enforce him to work against his will of helping the prisoner of war from America.	2
12	Answer ANY ONE of the following two questions, in about 120-150 words. Content -2 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Full credit for sustained, clear, well-developed personal response to the task that appropriately justifies any arguments • Partial credit of 1 ½, 1 and ½ as per the response clarity and relevance 	5

	Expression – 2 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Full credit for effective organisation -structure, relevant vocabulary and effective relay of ideas. • Partial credit of 1 ½, 1 and ½ as per the level of coherence and cohesion Accuracy-1 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Full credit for none to minimal errors • Partial credit of ½ for spellings and/or grammatical, largely accurate • No credit for error density causing impediment in understanding [Content , in suggested responses, may be above the recommended word limit, as it aims to share content points that can be drawn upon to structure the final desired response.]
A	Suggested response: Mistakes are common - all of us, whether old or young, may make numerous mistakes. For example, little Franz is careless, indisciplined and unpunctual while the vagabond, who is much older than Franz, remains greedy and chooses to engage in petty thievery. If not corrected in time, our mistakes bring our growth to a standstill. As in the case of Franz, since he does not take Mr Hamel’s classes seriously, he is unable to learn French despite being present in the classroom. The man with the rattrap, on the other hand, is not satisfied with people’s kindness to him. Instead, he steals from compassionate people like the old crofter who shared his meal with him and gave him a place to rest, without any remorse. He also greedily pretends to be the master blacksmith’s long-lost acquaintance, hoping for money from the blacksmith. However, when they are confronted with their respective situations, they realise their mistakes. Franz attends the last lesson only to realise that he had lost the only opportunity to learn his mother tongue while the vagabond who pretended to be Captain Von Stahle was taken aback by the goodness of Edla. Upon this realisation, Franz is filled with remorse and tries his best to recite the lesson. He is unable to do so and feels guilty, so he listens to the remaining part of the lesson with rapt attention. Similarly, inspired by Edla’s kindness to him, the rattrap man returns the stolen money. Both of these characters thus realise their mistakes and take initiative to fix them. They make the choice to evolve into better people by learning from their mistakes, something that makes a difference in their lives.
B	Suggested response: Keeping Quiet, highlights, the importance of sustaining peace and silence to promote mutual understanding, universal brotherhood and communal harmony. The advancement of science and technology has invigorated the use of machines towards a destructive consequence. In order to sustain development for the future generation it is highly important to foster peace and justice . In Aunt Jennifer’s Tigers, the aunt is surrounded by conflicts, issues and struggles that a woman has to face in the male chauvinistic society. The hardships and atrocities that a woman confronts in a patriarchal society finds liberation in the art she stitches in the canvas which easily depicts her desire for freedom and fearlessness. It is important to take care of small things, to make big things fall into place. We should create a society to live happily and also to allow others to live happily.

13.	Answer ANY ONE of the following two questions, in about 120-150 words. Content -2 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Full credit for sustained, clear, well-developed personal response to the task that appropriately justifies any arguments • Partial credit of 1 ½, 1 and ½ as per the response clarity and relevance Expression – 2 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Full credit for effective organisation -structure, relevant vocabulary and effective relay of ideas. • Partial credit of 1 ½, 1 and ½ as per the level of coherence and cohesion Accuracy-1 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Full credit for none to minimal errors • Partial credit of ½ for spellings and/or grammatical, largely accurate • No credit for error density causing impediment in understanding [Content , in suggested responses, may be above the recommended word limit, as it aims to share content points that can be drawn upon to structure the final desired response.]	5
A	Suggested response: It was an interaction that stood apart from most interactions of my life - to talk to someone who is welcoming and not afraid of me. Mr Lamb treated me like a normal human being without expressing any judgement, comments, fear or sympathy. He taught me to believe that I am the same as others despite the burns on my face by explaining how both flowers and weeds are the same despite their outward appearance. He taught me to accept myself with all deformities. He provided an insight into self-acceptance and remaining unaffected by people’s comments. He encouraged Derry to live life to the fullest.
B	Suggested response: My dear young friends I had a wonderful experience at Antarctica, an amazing at the southernmost tip of the Earth. I am extremely thrilled to share some of my extraordinary experiences with you all. Antarctica gives us an idea about how the Earth would have been like millions of years ago and how it got divided into various landmasses. A simple ecosystem and lack of biodiversity, has made Antarctica the perfect place to study how little changes in the environment can have big repercussions. It is the only place in the world which has never sustained the human population and thus remains relatively pristine as a place of peace, science, environmental preservation, and conservation. It is exciting, challenging and life affirming. To know the past, present and future of the earth, Antarctica is the best place to visit. You being the stewards and caretakers of the Earth, have a greater responsibility to shoulder. Let’s take small steps towards preserving the Earth and saving it from further degradation. Thank you
